

THE NEW PIRATE.

More Vessels Destroyed by the Tallahassee.

PORTLAND, Me., August 18. The schooner S. B. Harris, of Dorchester, Capt. Delano, arrived here to-day, and reports having been captured, August 15th, twenty miles west of Seal Island, by the pirate Tallahassee—and bonded for eight thousand dollars.

The Harris brought in the crews of the following schooners, which were captured and scuttled by the Tallahassee:—

Schooner Howard, Capt. Barr, of New York. Schooner Coral Wreath, Capt. Blake, of Westport. Schooner Etta Caroline, Capt. Poor, of Portland. Schooner Restless, of Booth Bay.

All the foregoing were captured by the Tallahassee on Monday.

The crews of these vessels were allowed to take all their clothing and effects, and were kindly treated.

The Howard had been previously captured by the Tallahassee as being very heavily armed.

She was short of coal, and inquired for the nearest port to supply.

Her officers also inquired all about the fishermen in the Bay of Chaleur, where she is probably bound.

The Tallahassee at Halifax.

HALIFAX, August 18. The pirate Tallahassee is now coaling from a vessel alongside of her, and will probably take her departure some time during the night.

Heavy Firing Heard at Sea.

Hon. John M. Forbes, of Naushon, who came over yesterday in the yacht Azalea, informs us that early on Monday evening, he heard rapid artillery firing at sea, which he judged to be off No Man's Land. The shots, in all about twenty, were evidently from guns of different calibre, and not coming at regular intervals, could not have been in the hands of a regular force. Mr. Forbes had been in the vicinity of the firing, and he was confident that the firing was due to one of our gunboats.

To relieve all anxiety, we deem it proper to add that the U. S. gunboat Marbledash was, at the time, safe in our outer harbor.—New Bedford Mercury, 17th.

Fight on the Ship Lady Emily Peel.

PHILADELPHIA, August 18. This afternoon a fight occurred on board the ship Lady Emily Peel, which arrived from London yesterday last night.

During last night and this morning the crew went on shore and returned very much intoxicated, and finally began to fight among themselves.

A general row soon ensued upon the deck, during which the boat-swain, whose name is McMaster, of Belfast, was stabbed in the neck with a large sheath-knife. The jugular vein was cut, and McMaster died in a few moments. Another of the crew, named Francis McKeever, is alleged to have inflicted the wound. The latter was stabbed in the thigh, and badly beaten. He was taken to the hospital in an apparently dying condition.

The Police took charge of the vessel, arresting some eight or ten of the crew, who will be held to await the Coroner's investigation.

From North Carolina.

By the arrival of a mail steamer from North Carolina, dated to the 14th inst are received.

A soldier was shot in Newbern, for deserting to the rebels, on the morning of the 13th instant.

Six more soldiers were shot at the same place, for the same offence, on the morning of the 14th instant.

One soldier was also shot for advising others to desert. This is the first execution of the kind under the new order of things, which brings before a Court Martial persons from any part of the country, who, if found guilty of writing to soldiers, urging them to desert, are also to be shot.

This mode of creating dissatisfaction in the army, through private letters, which is now resorted to very extensively, brings about more desertions than all other causes combined. Hence the necessity for these summary measures, which will result in a great saving of life, as it is understood that in the future there is to be no departure from this rule.

Farragut's victory at Mobile was received with great enthusiasm in North Carolina. The desire to see Farragut move on Wilmington is general.

Order of General Couch.

PHILADELPHIA, August 18. By order of Gen. Couch, issued to-day at Harrisburg, the District of Brandywine is discontinued, and Gen. Cadwallader ordered to the command of Philadelphia.

Indian Outrages.

LEAVENWORTH, August 18. Reliable news from the scene of the Indian outrages is scarce. They seem to control the country from a point about 75 miles east of Fort Kearney to the forks of the Platte River, and from the Platte River to the Arkansas River. A number of trains have been captured, and conductors killed, and a large amount of property destroyed.

Gen. Curtis is at Omaha, organizing an expedition against them, and portions of the Kansas and Nebraska militia are in motion on the Overland Stage Route.

COLONEL TRACY.—The gallant Col. Tracy of the Twenty-third Massachusetts who was wounded on Sunday last, while leading a brigade, will arrive in the city this (Friday) morning. Proper arrangements for his reception have been made by Col. Rowe, the Massachusetts State Agent.

FROM GRANT'S ARMY.

Secretary Stanton's Official Dispatch to Gen. Dix.

WAR DEPARTMENT, WASHINGTON, Aug. 18—9.30 p. m.

To Maj. Gen. DIX, New York:

A dispatch from Gen. Grant, dated Monday the 16th, 6.30 p. m., detained by the breaking of the telegraph line, has just been received. It reports that the fighting north of the James River to-day (16th) has resulted favorably to us, so far as it has gone, but there has been no decisive result. The enemy has been driven back somewhat from their position of this morning, with a considerable loss in killed and wounded, and about 400 prisoners (well ones) left in our hands. Two brigadier-generals, Chamberlain and Geary, were killed, and their bodies left in our hands. We also have quite a number of wounded prisoners. Since moving north of the river, our losses will probably reach near 1,000 killed and wounded—many, however, only slightly wounded, owing to so much of the fighting taking place in thick woods. The enemy have lost about as many as have fallen into our hands.

The Department has intelligence from Gen. Sherman to half-past 11 last night, but no operations are reported.

A dispatch from Gen. Sheridan at Winchester, dated August 17th, 10 a. m., reports that Gen. Merritt's division of cavalry was attacked yesterday afternoon, on the north side of the Shenandoah. Kershaw's division of Longstreet's corps, and Wickham and Lomax's brigades of cavalry. After a very handsome cavalry fight, the enemy were badly beaten, with a loss of two stands of colors, 24 officers, 276 men prisoners.

In a later dispatch Gen. Sheridan says: The cavalry engagement in front of Front Royal was splendid. It was on open ground. The sabre was freely used by our men. Great credit is due to Gens. Merritt and Gustor, and Col. Devins.

EDWIN M. STANTON, Sec. of War.

Arrival of Rebel Prisoners—The Action of Sunday—The Position held on Tuesday Night.

WASHINGTON, Thursday, August 18. The mail steamer, from City Point this morning, brought hither seventy-five rebel prisoners, among whom were several officers, captured in the late movement up the James river.

Passengers represent that the affair of Sunday was of greater proportions than at first supposed, the combined losses of the 2d and 10th Corps in killed and wounded being from 800 to 1,000, while the loss to the rebels was also severe.

The position gained by us was still held on Tuesday night.

On Tuesday there was some shelling by our forces, to feel the rebel position.

There were indications of another advance on our part yesterday.

Severe Skirmishing Every Day this Week on the North Side of the James River.

PORTSMOUTH, August 17. A dispatch from Baltimore, August 18. The steamer Thomas Morgan arrived here this morning from Deep Bottom.

She brought two hundred wounded soldiers belonging to the Tenth Army Corps.

Our forces on the north side of the James River have had very continuous and severe skirmishing every day this week.

We have captured more prisoners than had been expected, but have no definite statement of the number.

No general officers have as yet been reported either killed or wounded.

THE PRINTERS' STRIKE.

Mass Meeting in City Hall Park.

A mass meeting was held last night in the City Hall Park, under the auspices of the Workingmen's Union, and in support of the strike of the Printers for the advance required by the new scale adopted by the Typographical Union.

A large number of trades were represented on the stand for the speakers, and Graffius's Band of the 7th Regiment performed between the speeches.

The meeting, composed of perhaps 1,500 persons, did not commence until somewhat after the time advertised, and was called to order by Mr. Thos. J. Walsh, who proposed as President of the Meeting Mr. Edward A. Holmes, President of the Printers' Union, which, on being put to the meeting, was carried by acclamation.

Mr. Holmes, who was received with loud cheers, said: You have heard how we have dictated terms to us to what should be published by the employers in the newspapers, and I wish you to understand that it is a very great mistake. As, however, it is stated we, the printers, wish to set ourselves right on the record with our fellow workmen of New York. The matter of this strike arose occurred in the New York Tribune office. (Hisses.) Upon last Friday, the men employed in The Tribune office walked upon their employers and requested to know whether they were, or were not, going to pay the prices established by the New York Printers' Union. The employers stated, through their attorney, that they would not pay that under protest, and the men refused to go to work upon such a basis. They then stated that they would not pay that scale of prices, but that, notwithstanding that combination, they, the employers, would use no trick against the interests of the workmen until the Printer's Union had met on the Saturday evening. Upon that statement the men employed in the Tribune office went to work. About 11 o'clock on the evening of Friday, while the men were at work in the office, an advertisement came up, stating that "twenty compositors were wanted on advertising paper. For further information, apply to Mr. Jones, Times office." Upon the receipt of that, all the men refused to work. The editor stated that he would try to have it withdrawn by Mr. Jones of the Times office, and sent out a messenger. In the meantime, the men employed in the Tribune office had struck against this advertisement, and Mr. Jones had given a written order withdrawing the advertisement from the Tribune, and others in which it was ordered to appear. When the gentleman came to the Tribune Office and requested the advertisement to be withdrawn, the Superintendent said that that must appear in the paper if nothing was done. The men, through the gentleman, then did a trick, and they left the office in a mass. Upon Saturday evening the Printer's Union met and did not receive from their scale. Upon the Sunday applications were made at the Tribune office for work, and, among others, two young gentlemen from Pittsburgh had telegraphed to Mr. Jones of the Times office in regard to the to-day's work, 15 August. In answer to a telegram to Times office we will give employment to compositors who report to our foreman to-morrow morning. "Thos. McElrath, Tribune Office." Did not that prove a trick? He thought that now he had proved the falsehood of the statement published in the newspapers in regard to this Union. When the employers entered into honorable contract with the men, they left the office in a mass. Upon Saturday evening the Printer's Union met and did not receive from their scale.
